Lam Research Corporation Announces Stockholder Approval Of Three-For-One Stock Split And Increase Of Authorized Common Stock To 400 Million Shares
FREMONT, Calif., March 6, 2000 - Lam Research Corporation (Nasdaq: LRCX) announced that at a special meeting held today the company's stockholders approved by a majority vote a three-for-one split of its outstanding shares of common stock and an increase of the company's authorized common stock to 400 million shares. The stockholder approval satisfies the condition for the previously announced three-for-one stock split approved by Lam's Board of Directors on January 24, 2000.

Lam expects the increase in outstanding shares of common stock to become effective March 7, 2000. Stockholders of record at the close of business on the effective date will be entitled to receive two additional shares of common stock for each share of the company's common stock held on that date. New stock certificates representing the additional shares are expected to be mailed to stockholders by the company's transfer agent on or about March 16, 2000. The company expects that shares of its outstanding common stock will begin to trade on a post-split basis on March 17, 2000. Upon completion of the stock split, Lam will have approximately 122 million shares of common stock outstanding.
