"Lam's June quarter and fiscal year results demonstrate strong execution of our growth strategy during a transformative period for the Company," stated Martin Anstice, Lam Research's president and chief executive officer. "Fiscal year results included record revenues in each successive quarter and operating income more than doubled year-over-year Central to our financial and operational outperformance is our close collaboration with our customers in addressing the technical and economic challenges of scaling. We believe these efforts provide opportunities to build upon this foundation with market growth and share gains at the key inflections that will drive wafer fab equipment investment for the foreseeable future."

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow Results
Cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, and restricted cash and investment balances increased to $$ 3.2$ billion at the end of the June 2014 quarter compared to $$ 2.9$ billion at the end of the March 2014 quarter. This increase was primarily the result of approximately $$ 246$ million in cash flows from operating activities and approximately $$ 135$ million of cash proceeds on sale of assets during the June 2014 quarter and was partially offset by approximately $$ 42$ million of capital expenditures and approximately $$ 40$ million of stock repurchases.

Deferred revenue and deferred profit balances at the end of the June 2014 quarter decreased to $$ 361.6$ million and $$ 235.9$ million, respectively, as compared to $$ 431.5$ million and $$ 257.3$ million, respectively, at the end of the March 2014 quarter. Lam's deferred revenue balance does not include shipments to Japanese customers, to whom title does not transfer until customer acceptance. Shipments to Japanese customers are classified as inventory at cost until the time of acceptance. The anticipated future revenue from shipments to Japanese customers was approximately $$ 34.0$ million as of June 29, 2014.
